

Going Electric

Electric Golf Carts at SICC

In an effort to transit away from conventional fossil fuels, SICC's entire golf buggy fleet is now powered by lithium-ion battery, which are longer lasting and require less charging time. Furthermore, SICC is also currently converting our caddy equipment to electrical ones that produces zero tailpipe emissions and contribute to cleaner air quality.

Find out more about the materials we use by visiting our social media platforms.